CME Program Reaccredited

The medical association of the state of Alabama, in cooperation with the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education, awarded Mobile Infirmary Medical Center a certificate of accreditation in continuing medical education. Through the efforts of Shauna Labo, educator, and the Medical Education Committee, Mobile Infirmary fulfilled the requirements set forth in the essentials and standards for accreditation of continuing medical education. This grants Mobile Infirmary Medical Center the ability to provide continuing medical education activities for physicians through April 2014.
